WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

RATIFICATION MEETING AT TAMMANY HALL.

Tammany Hall was the scene of the most enthusiastic meeting Friday night that has been held in New York since the Convention met. The occasion was the formal tender of the nominations to the nominees by Gen. Morgan, of Ohio, Chairman of the Committee appointed for that purpose by the Convention. Mr. Seymour, in accepting the nomination, said:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee:—I thank you for the courteous terms in which you have communicated to me the action of the Democratic National Convention. [Cheers.] I have no words adequate to express my gratitude for the good will and kindness which that body has shown to me. Its nomination was unsought and unexpected. It was my ambition to take an active part, from which I am now excluded, in the great struggle going on for the restoration of the general government and prosperity to our country, [great cheering] but I have been caught by the overwhelming tide that is bearing us to a great political change, and I find myself unable to resist its pressure. [Loud cheers.]

You have also given to me a copy of the resolutions put forth by the Convention, showing its position upon the great questions which now agitate the country. As the presiding officer of that Convention, I am familiar with their scope and import.—As one of its members, I am a party to their terms. They accord with my views, and I stand upon them in the contest which we are now entering. I shall strive to carry them out in full, wherever I may be placed, in public or in private life. [Cheers.] I congratulate you, and all Conservative men who seek to restore order, peace and prosperity, and good government to our land, upon the evidences everywhere shown that we are to triumph at the next election.—[Prolonged cheers.] Those who are politically opposed to us flattered themselves that there would be discord in our midst.

They mistook the uncertainties of our views as to the best methods of carrying out our purposes for differences of opinion with regard to those purposes. They mistook an intense anxiety to do so act which should not be wise and judicious for a spirit of discord; but, during the lengthened proceedings and earnest discussions of the Convention, there has prevailed an entire harmony of intercourse, a patient forbearance, and a self sacrificing spirit, which are the sure tokens of a coming victory.—Accept for yourselves, gentlemen, my wishes for your future welfare and happiness.—[Cheers.] In a few days I will answer the communication you have just handed me, by letter, as is the customary form. [Tremendous and continuous cheers.]

Further remarks were made, repeatedly interrupted by cheers.

Gen. Blair's speech was brave, manly, and emphatic. He said "we are about entering on a contest for the restoration of the Union and the principles of the Constitution, and the preservation of the white race from the domination of a semi barbarous people." There is no white man in the land, worthy of the name of a white man, who would be willing to deprive Lee and Johnston, and their gallant comrades, of the privileges which are the birth right of their race.

ELECTIONEERING DODGES.

"Major-General Howard has formally ordered the discontinuation of the Freedmen's Bureau in South Carolina, and will, as speedily as possible, close the bureau's business in other States."—New York Tribune.

This sort of deception will hardly mislead even the unwary. The trick has been repeated too often to have the least merit of novelty, and is now regarded as only a barefaced attempt to impose on the public by willful misrepresentation. The Freedmen's Bureau has just been extended another year by the influence of General Howard, who first pretended to recommend its abolition. That fact is the best answer to the false statement of the Tribune, and reveals the real sentiment of the head of this corrupt political machinery, who has worked it only for selfish and party purposes. There is not the remotest intention of closing the bureau, now, and never has been. The best proof of it is the law recently passed by an undivided Radical vote in both Houses of Congress. It forms an essential element of their programme in the Presidential campaign, and was renewed for that object expressly. The proof is to be found in the Senate bill proposed by Mr. Howard, by which the President is deprived of all supervising authority, and "the present Commissioner," (General Howard,) is rendered independent of the army regulations and of all proper accountability, until the 1st. of January next, thus covering the Presidential election. That proposition reveals the plot; while another introduced by Mr. Pomeroy, as a sequel, proposes to transfer the Indian Bureau to the Freedmen's Bureau, and thus fasten it permanently on the Government. The Tribune is well aware of these facts, and yet has concealed them for party effect.

Radicalism has taken a sudden and violent spasm of reform since the New York Convention. But this pretended zeal comes rather late in the day, and exposes its own motive. Nearly eight months have been squandered in factious agitation and in a desperate effort to get possession of the Executive office. All the great material interests have been treated with the utmost neglect and contempt by the dominant party in Congress. Precious time and money have been wantonly wasted in persecuting the President and in attempts to rule or ruin. And now, at the eleventh hour, when all is confusion, when everybody is worn down with fatigue, the session about closing, and when the New York Convention has framed its indictment, the very men who have all along treated with scorn the serious public business rush forward with political schemes for reducing the army, for a higher protective tariff, and for other purposes, all intended to counteract the effect of their past criminal omissions, and to propitiate a people whom they have outraged by neglect, extravagance, and unparalleled corruption. These electioneering expedients have had their day, and can succeed no longe. The eyes of the country are at length open to the iniquities which have been practiced, and the mischief which the rule of Radicalism has produced. Professions have no value from such a source, because the most solemn promises have been made only to be violated. This affected repentance is like that of the hardened criminal who goes to the gallows protesting his innocence, in the vain delusion that his guilt may be doubted and his bad character redeemed. As the individual is estimated by his life, so is a party judged by its recorded acts. Seven years of bloated power and unexampled tyranny confront Radicalism, and demand its expulsion as the only means left of rescuing the country from most serious perils.

Inasmuch as the New York Post and other papers have been deceived by the artful "dodge" of Gen. Howard and his Radical friends, we publish his own testimony to show that the Freedmen's Bureau has not been stopped, and that his whole movement is a sham, got up to deceive the public:

"WAR DEPARTMENT,
Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen,
And Abandoned Lands,
Washington, July 6, 1868.

"Brevet Major General R. K. Scott, Assistant Commissioner, Charleston, South Carolina:

"GENERAL: Your method of reducing the number of agents of the bureau and gradually transferring the duties devolving upon them to local officers of State appointments, meets with my approval. It will embarrass you less to select an army officer, who will heartily co-operate with you, to act as Assistant Commissioner, and to have all civil agents replaced by army officers, carefully selected. These officers had better be as few in number as possible. Your own appointment will be continued until a suitable officer can be selected to relieve you.—Meanwhile, please make your recommendations to effect the changes of reduction above suggested, as soon as you can, and name an officer to act as Assistant Commissioner. I believe your local magistrates will render the duties of these army officers very light, and they will be your best assistants to protect the Government property. The superintendent of education had better be a civilian, as you suggest. As soon as the State shall be ready to assume the work of education, this office also will be relieved by State appointment.

O. O. HOWARD,
Major General, Commissioner.
"Approved: J. M. SCHOFIELD, Secretary of War."

THE FOURTEENTH ARTICLE.

The practical operation of the amendment proposed by Congress to the Constitution as the fourteenth article, when adopted, has not been generally considered, and has, in some instances, been misapprehended. This article will soon be ratified by three-fourths of the States, and proclaimed as a part of the Constitution.

Seven of the lately excluded States will soon have accepted the article as an amendment through Africo Radical bayonet made Legislatures. It will be a part of the Constitution, provided the reconstruction acts of Congress are to stand as laws of the land.

It has been represented that the fourteenth article gave to the several States, including the Southern States, the option of extending the franchise to all persons, including the freedmen, or of limiting the suffrage to whites, as heretofore; it being provided, however, that the basis of representation in Congress shall be in accordance with the population of the voting classes.—If a State exclude any class of male inhabitants from voting, the basis of representation shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens in a State.

But Congress, by an arbitrary law, practically withdrew and annulled this option, and left hardly anything for the fourteenth article to operate upon. They enacted laws establishing universal negro suffrage in all the excluded States, and constituting negro State governments, and enabling the negro-Radical Conventions of such States to force negro suffrage upon the people of those States by Constitutions, which have since, by another act, been declared perpetual.—Thus, there remains to the Southern States no option between universal negro suffrage and a qualified suffrage.

But to the Africanized State governments there does remain the option of contracting the basis of representation by denying or abridging the right of suffrage for the white people of the State. The Constitutions of some of those States which have been or are about to be re-admitted by Congress exclude large portions of the white citizens from the right of suffrage.—National Intelligencer.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET:

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

The enemies of the Constitution and of free institutions affect to believe that the Radical ticket, Grant and Colfax, will triumph over Seymour and Blair. The New York Herald, which, for weeks, has been working lustily in the interest of the Grant and Colfax ticket, by its urgent recommendations of Judge Chase for the nomination, whirls around at once and declares for Grant and Colfax, because of the nomination of Seymour and Blair.

If Grant and Colfax are so certain of election, and Seymour and Blair so certain of defeat, where are the evidences of it? If the Radical platform, or their nominees, have any popularity, the public feeling gives no indication of it. Hardly any Radical can find any thing in the platform or in Grant and Colfax to approve. No one fully endorses either. The stolid weakness and imbecility of Grant, and his bad habits, make him a by-word and a reproach to the nation. His military services, never of any transcendent brilliancy, are totally obscured by his intellectual and moral obliquities.—Colfax is a heavy tail to the kite. Never, in the history of parties in this country, have platform and candidates fallen with such deadness upon the public ear, and the general venality, corruption and baseness of the party have doomed it to utter defeat.—The public have no confidence in the party or its supporters.

Notice the contrast in the reception of the platform and nominees of the late National Democratic Convention. Everywhere, they have been received and endorsed in the most enthusiastic manner.—Some ardent friends of Mr. Pendleton, Gen. Hancock and Judge Chase may have felt disappointed, at first, but the spirit of the Conservative and Democratic masses of the country has never been more unanimous, and it will grow stronger and stronger, until victory is ours.

The high characters of the Democratic nominees, their untarnished reputation as gentlemen, and their high intelligence in civil affairs, completely eclipse the Radical nominees,—and then the noble platform of principles is such as every right-minded man must approve. With such a platform, and such a ticket, the way to victory and success is wide open to the friends of liberty and of the Constitution!

TRUSTEES OF THE UNIVERSITY.

We publish, to day, a list of the new Trustees of the University, said to have been elected recently by the "Board of Education." The Constitution requires, we believe, that one shall be elected from every County and not for every County in the State; at least, that seems to have been the intention of the Convention. We were not aware before, that Mr. Cantwell resided in Nash, or John Robinson, in Onslow, or Judge Brooks in Tyrell, or "Judge" Tourgee in Alleghany. Men, however, when they become Radical, seem to have wonderful endowments; if not ubiquitous or omnipotent, they become, at least, very marvellous people.

The Board of Trustees, when full, will be composed of eighty nine persons, and, wonderful to tell, so far as we can see, there is not a single negro on it! Moreover, we observe the names of a good many persons on the list, who, we suppose, are not sufficiently Radicalized, yet, to favor the ultra views of Ashley, and others. We could name a number of them, who yet retain the instincts of gentlemen, we trust, and who are not so Radical, but that reason and common sense and a patriotic devotion to the State will restrain them from doing the monstrous things said to be aimed at by Mr. Ashley, and "Gov." Holden, and others of that stripe.

However, in the hands of the Jacobins, the University ceases to be an object of interest to us.

ASHAMED.—We learn that some of the Radicals in the so-called House of Representatives profess to be ashamed of the action of that body in excluding our Reporter for the offence of calling a negro a "negro," and thereby only following the example of Congress and the Chicago Convention, the Dictionary, common usage and common sense. We do not believe that they are capable of being "ashamed" of anything. With two honorable exceptions, most of them crouched beneath the whip of the carpet-baggers, when they cracked it over their heads; and some who did not actually succumb, meanly dodged.

It was not because we designated the negro by his proper ethnological name, that our Reporter was excluded; although the Radical "House of Representatives" is placed in that contemptible and ridiculous attitude. The true secret of the matter is that the carpet-baggers fear and hate the Sentinel, for its exposure of their nefarious schemes and purposes. And the native Radical element had not the manhood to resist this monstrous and infamous invasion of the liberties of the Press.

EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY.

We observe that the impression is becoming very general, that "Gov." Holden is exceeding his powers under the new Constitution, by the number of officers of different kinds he is appointing, and the number of removals he is effecting.

We are not much concerned as to what he does, in a general way, and, therefore, have not sought to ascertain the extent or the limit of his powers. Heretofore, Governors have had very little power or patronage, as it would seem, if the course of Gov. Holden is regular, that he is exercising a deal of power never before conferred upon an Executive of this State.

If the government is regular, and neither military nor provisional, it appears to us that all the old officials in the State, under the military rule, hold over until the General Assembly, by law, provides for filling those offices. Where is Holden's authority for appointing one Justice of the Peace in one County and forty in another? The Constitution looks to some uniformity in the matter, and that Justices of the Peace shall be elected by the people. By what authority does he claim to appoint Commissioners of the city of Raleigh? Is he a military Governor—an officer who is a law unto himself,—or is he the Executive head of a civil government in North Carolina, and, therefore, as much the subject of law, as any one else?

These are important considerations, and we allude to them, simply because it strikes us that "Gov." Holden's whole action is not in conformity with law and order. Does he consult the Supreme Court Judges in this matter, or does he simply rely upon the young man whom accident has made the Attorney General? If the latter, we should advise consultation with the older Judges, as we understand the young Attorney General is not over fond of law, any way, and is far from being overcropped in legal knowledge!

RADICAL CORRUPTION.

The following precious document has accidentally fallen into our hands. It exhibits the corrupt means which are being employed to carry the Presidential election in the interests of Radicalism. Similar communications have been addressed to every official—small and large,—in the whole land, and a refusal to comply with the assessment will be a signal for removal. We take it that the official income of the Post master, in the little town of Louisburg, does not reach $500. If so, this assessment is more than 20 per cent. of his income,—a most infamous exaction. Verily, this Radicalism is a moral monster, that stops at no atrocity in the accomplishment of its diabolical designs:

SIR:—The Republican National Committee, being profoundly impressed with the importance of vigorously prosecuting the ensuing political campaign, apply to you for an immediate contribution of $14.

All in sympathy with the purposes of the Republican party will readily understand that expenses must be incurred for organization, documents and speakers, in successfully conducting a Presidential Campaign. The funds contributed will be judiciously expended.

Communications should be addressed to THOMAS L. TULLOCK, Secretary, Washington, D. C., and will be promptly acknowledged.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

We trust that our friends throughout the State will at once move in the matter of appointing Delegates to the State Democratic Convention, which it is proposed to hold in this City, on the 13th day of August. Let us have a rousing demonstration of the supporters of Seymour and Blair, and send greeting to the friends of Constitutional Union the whole country over.

GOV. VARCE.—This distinguished gentleman spoke in Baltimore, on Friday night last, and in Richmond, on Saturday night, to immense audiences. He was received with great enthusiasm in both places, and made two of his most effective efforts.—The Richmond Whig says of him:

"We regret that we cannot give a full report of the Governor's speech. It suffices to say, however, in conclusion, that it was all that the most eloquent of the sons of the Old North State could have made even under the inspiring influence of a Virginian audience—each one of which looked as if he felt that the young man eloquent ought to be one of us, and by to-day's train take the stump against the infamous Constitution, which is sought to be imposed on us by scalawags, carpet-baggers and negroes."

GEN. F. P. BLAIR.—We observe that the Northern papers claim that General Blair, the Democratic nominee for the Vice Presidency, is a graduate at Princeton College, N. J. This is an error. Gen. Francis P. Blair is a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

GEN. M. W. RANSOM was the Committeeman, on the part of North Carolina, to advise the Hon. Horatio Seymour and General Frank P. Blair of their nominations for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency of the United States.

NORFOLK.—New white Wheat is selling in Portsmouth at $2.40@$2.80, and red at $2.20@$2.65. Good apples are in demand and sell for $4@$7, per barrel, according to quality. Good Irish potatoes are worth $3.50 per barrel. In this connection, we invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co., in another column.

HOT WEATHER AND DROUGHT.—The very severe hot weather and drought, which have prevailed here for the last month, have nearly destroyed our gardens, and begin now to affect the corn and cotton. Rain is greatly needed.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

Mr. Barrow introduced a resolution, instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to report a bill to prevent the destruction of fish in the waters of North Carolina.

BILLS ON CALENDAR.

Bill to amend Chapt. 85 of the Revised Code of North Carolina. (This bill provides for the election of five Commissioners of Navigation and Pilotage of the Cape Fear River, to be held at the same time and place of the municipal election for the City of Wilmington.) Passed its second reading.

Bill to abate the poll or capitation tax in the County of Montgomery.

Mr. Colgrove moved to amend, by inserting Jones County.

Mr. Blythe moved to amend, by including all the counties in the State in its provisions, and, on motion of Mr. Respass, it was referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Colgrove: A bill to regulate the collection of taxes in this State.

By Mr. Welker: A resolution proposing to go into the election of State Printer, to-morrow at 12 o'clock, if it meets the concurrence of the House.

Subsequently, the House concurred.

On motion of Mr. Rich, the communication from the Governor, nominating Directors for the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, was taken up.

After considerable discussion, the appointments were concurred in.

Mr. Welker, thereupon, introduced a resolution, complimenting the present Superintendent, (Mr. Palmer,) with the request that the Board retain him in his present position.

Messrs. Cook, Sweet, Blythe, Etheridge, Colgrove, Hays and Rich opposed this resolution, and exerted their utmost to defeat it.

Messrs. Welker, Lassiter, Winstead, Jones, of Wake, and Respass urged its passage; and the resolution was adopted, Ayes 31; Nays 9.

A message was received from the House, proposing to go forthwith into the election of a United States Senator for the long term; which was concurred in.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Barrow and Love, as the Senate branch of the Committee to superintend the election.

Mr. Brogden nominated Mr. John Pool.

Mr. Barnes nominated the Hon. W. A. Graham. Those who voted for Mr. Pool were:

Messrs. Barrow, Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Beeman, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Eppes, (negro,) Forkner, Galloway, (negro,) Hayes, Harrington, Hall, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Legg, Lindsay, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancy, Rich, Respass, Richardson, Smith, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker, White, Winstead, Wilson—37.

The following gentlemen voted for Hon. W. A. Graham:

Messrs. Barnes, Love, Melchor, Mason, McLaughlin, Purdie—6.

The Joint Committee subsequently reported the result in both Houses, as follows: The whole number of votes cast 144. For Mr. Pool 113; for Mr. Graham 31.

The Chair announced that Mr. Pool, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was duly elected.

A message from the House was concurred in, proposing to go into the election of an United States Senator for the short term.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Cook and Mason, as the Senate branch of the Committee to superintend the election.

Mr. Sweet nominated Mr. J. C. Abbott, and Mr. Love nominated the Hon. M. E. Manly.

Those who voted for Mr. Abbott are:

Messrs. Barrow, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Eppes, negro, Forkner, Galloway, negro, Hayes, Harrington, Hall, Hyman, negro, Jones, of Wake, Legg, Lassiter, Long, Martindale, Moore; of Carteret, Moore, of Yancy, Rich, Respass, Richardson, Smith, Shoffner, Sweet, Welker, White, Winstead and Wilson.

Those who voted for Mr. Manly are:

Messrs. Barnes, Love, Melchor, Mason and Purdie.

The Joint Committee subsequently reported the result of the vote in both Houses: The whole number of votes cast 134. Mr. Abbott received 104, Mr. Manly 28, Mr. Bedford Brown 1 and Mr. N. Boyden 1

The Chair announced Mr. Abbott duly elected.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until the regular hour to-morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

[BY UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.]

TUESDAY, July 14, M.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Welker, of Pennsylvania.

The Journal of yesterday was read, and as it contained the usual amount of scallawagery, it was, of course, approved.

Seymour, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill to provide for a new registration of voters in the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Sinclair opposed the passage of the bill, and offered an amendment to the 5th section, to protect the citizens from the arbitrary powers granted to the proposed Boards.

Abbott, (New York Shaker, and now member of the U. S. Senate from North Carolina,) opposed the amendment, as it was altogether too fair and just to suit carpet-bag proclivities.

The amendment was put to a vote, and lost, of course.

The bill then passed its several readings, under a suspension of the rules, after a spell of horrible reading, on the part of "that Blessed Baby," from Buncombe.

Mr. Bowman submitted a motion, calling up the bill that he had introduced and which had been referred to the Committee on Education. [The bill provides for the establishment of separate schools for the two races.]

Pending the matter, the hour for the special order arrived, viz: the election of United States Senators.

Mr. Bowman moved that a message be sent to the Senate to go into an immediate election of a Senator for the long term.—Carried.

On the return of the messenger, bearing concurrence of the Senate,

Mr. Bowman placed in nomination Johnny pool, of Pasquotank.

Mr. Durham nominated the distinguished and noble son of North Carolina, the HON. WM. A. GRAHAM, of Orange.

Messrs. Durham and Bowman were appointed to superintend the election on the part of the House.

The roll, being called, resulted in the following ballot:

For Mr. Graham:—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Boddie, Davis, Durham, Ellis, Farrow, Ferebee, Gatling, Gibson, Hodnett, Hicks, High, Hawkins, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Moore, Matheson, Proffitt, Robinson, Smith, of Alleghany, Thompson, Whitley and Williams.

For Mr. Pool:—Messrs. Abbott, Ames, Ashworth, Brown, Bowman, Barnett, Blair, Banner, Candler, Clayton, of Chowan, Clayton, of Transylvania, Cherry, negro, Crawford, negro, Crawford, negro, Cawthorne, negro, Dixon, Downing, Estes, Foster, Franklin, Forkner, (negro,) Gahagan, Gunter, Gilbert, Graham, Hutchings, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) Horney, Hodgin, Hayes, (negro,) Hinnant, Hendricks, Ingram, Justice, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Kelly, of Moore, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Leary, (negro,) Ladin, Mayo, (negro,) Morrill, Morris, (negro,) Mendenhall, McCanless, Moring, Peck, Pou, Price, (negro,) Parker, Proctor, Pearson, Robbins, (negro,) Ragland, Renfrow, Reynolds, Rea, Rhodes, Smith, of Martin, Stilley, Simmons, Seymour, Stevens, Sweat, (negro,) Sykes, (negro,) Sinclair, Short, Siegrist, Stanton, Vestal, Vest, Wilson, Wilkie, Wiswall, White, and Waldrop.

The following gentlemen voted for Judge Manly:

Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Boddie, Clayton, of Transylvania, Davis, Durham, Farrow, Ferebee, Gatling, Gibson, Hicks, High, Humphries, Hawkins, Jarvis, Kelly of Davie, Proffitt, Robinson, Smith, of Alleghany, Thompson, Whitley, and Williams.

Mr. Ellis voted for Hon. Nat. Boyden.

Mr. Hodnett voted for Hon. Bedford Brown.

By Vest: A resolution in regard to the location of a State Penitentiary. Lies over.

Mr. Hodnett offered the following resolution, which lies over:

WHEREAS by an ordinance of the Constitutional Convention of North Carolina, ratified the 14th day of March, 1868, it is made the duty of this General Assembly, to provide for the payment in cash of the interest on the public debt, and whereas the people of the State, in their present impoverished condition, are unable to pay the necessary taxes to provide the means necessary for the payment of the same: Therefore

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact: That the said ordinance of the Constitutional Convention, entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the payment of the interest on the Public Debt," ratified the 14th day of March, 1868, is hereby repealed.

Be it further enacted: That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

On motion of Mr. Bowman, House bill No. 7 was again taken up and discussed.

After some debate, the bill passed its several readings,—two dissenting voices, namely: Sweat, (negro,) and Morris, (negro.)

Leary, Hays and Price, and some other darkies, would not vote at all

[Sweat, (negro,) from Cumberland, opposed the resolutions of the gentleman from Mitchell. Gentlemen would have to come down to facts as they were. The Conservatives of North Carolina knew what they were about, when they opposed, in the last campaign, the ratification of the Constitution by the people. They knew that separate schools could not be had, under the present Constitution, and he would defy any gentleman on the floor of the House to say so. Gentlemen, who had colored constituencies, dare not go back to them and acknowledge that they voted for separate schools. Gentlemen might as well insist on separate apartments in the Capitol to legislate in, as demand separate schools for their children under the Constitution.—Conservatives were right—they could have no separate schools, though for himself he was in favor of them.

Harris, negro, of Wake, would like to know to what race the negro from Cumberland belonged. He and his friend from Craven did not appear to him [Harris,] to belong to any in particular, and they were as undecided in regard to their politics. He went among the whites of the State and pledged himself to give both races separate schools. He understood better than the "gentleman" from Cumberland, or the "gentleman" from Craven either, what the Constitution meant. For himself, he would say that he was in favor of a complete separation of the races,—colored Churches, colored schools and colored teachers.

Mr. Bowman said that he was astonished to hear such sentiments fall from the lips of the "gentleman" from Cumberland. With the "gentleman" from Wake, he was at a loss where to class him; whether with the whites or colored, and at a greater loss where to class him politically. He evidently was keeping company with Conservatives where he must have imbibed Conservative heresies. He was sent to this body by white men, who expected him to secure equal political and civil equality to the negro race. The term negro, having very recently become offensive, he would change it, and call them colored. His constituents expected of him to secure them separate schools and a separate militia.]

A message was received from the Senate, proposing to go into the election of a Public Printer, to-morrow, at 12 o'clock. Agreed to.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) called up his bill to "give every body every thing."

After a good deal of both time and money being wasted upon the affair,

The House adjourned until half past 10 o'clock, to morrow morning.

If Gen. Tom Ewing, Jr., and Gen. N. B. Forrest will walk from Delmonico's to Tammany arm in arm, we think they may be sure of a very considerable crowd of spectators.—N. Y. Tribune.

Not so large a crowd as the appearance of Jefferson Davis and his bondsman, Horace Greeley, would attract, marching in the same place and order.—Boston Post.

The doctrine of "State Rights" is dead—killed by the war—but a new one is rising in its place: "State Wrongs." Le Roi est mort; vive le Roi.—N. O. Times.

DIED:

Wake Forest College, N. C.

THE FALL TERM OF THIS INSTITUTION will open on the first day of August 1868, with the prospect of increased patronage and success. The complete success given at the recent Commencement of the adaptedness of the University system to the wants of the times, and of its feasibility, encourages it to hope that the College has entered upon a career of popularity and usefulness hitherto unknown in its history. The financial embarrassments to which all Southern Colleges have been subjected are not felt to the same extent at Wake Forest, as at some others, in consequence of the considerable amount of original endowment saved, and of the favorable reception with which the Agent of the College meets in securing additional funds. An expenditure of more than $2,000 has been recently made in improving the condition of the building and grounds.
Determined to bring its advantages within reach of the largest number possible, the Trustees, seconded by the community, have reduced the price of Board and Tuition to the lowest practicable rates.
The officers of instruction are gentlemen of tried ability in their several departments, and the success attending their efforts in the past is the best guarantee the public can have for the future.
The location of the College in point of healthfulness and accessibility, (being situated on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, a few miles from the Capital of the State,) is not surpassed by that of any other in the land; while the moral and social influences connected with and surrounding it, and the peculiar discipline enforced, present inducements to patronage of no ordinary kind.
A system of PUBLIC LECTURES on literary and scientific subjects has been introduced, with a view to increase the interest of the young men in the several departments of study, and to furnish additional incentives to investigation and research.
Extensive and well selected LIBRARIES belonging to the Societies, and complete APPARATUS, PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL, are not to be omitted in the enumeration of the advantages possessed.
Another encouraging feature is that there are, at present, thirteen young men engaged in studies preparatory to the work of the Ministry; and it may not be amiss to state that any Minister, who may apply for admission, will receive tuition in all the departments free of charge, and those of this class, who are without means, are encouraged to apply to the Board of Education for further assistance.

EXPENSES IN CURRENCY:

Tuition for Preparatory School (per Session)	$30 00

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 15, 1868.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic and Conservative members of the General Assembly, after consultation with other gentlemen in this city, have determined to call a STATE CONVENTION of delegates representing the Democratic and Conservative masses of each County, to assemble in this City, on the 18th of August next, being the second Thursday of said month. Our friends in each County are urged to call County meetings, form Clubs, and make arrangements at once to send delegates to the State and District Conventions.

July 13th, 1868.

RATIFICATION MEETING.

A Mass meeting of the friends of SEYMORE and BLAIR will be held at TUCKER HALL, this evening, (Wednesday,) at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of ratifying the nominations made by the National Democratic Convention.

The ladies of the City are respectfully invited to grace the occasion by their presence. Let them show the interest which they feel in the noble cause for which we are struggling.

Several able speeches may be expected. Let us have a grand rally!!

MUNICIPAL IMBROGLIO.

"Gov." Holden, on yesterday, usurped the authority to appoint the following Board of Commissioners of this city, and to remove the present lawful incumbents:

Middle Ward—W. R. Richardson, A. L. Lougee, J. P. Adams.

Eastern Ward—Jno. T. Williamson, Forney Whitaker, Handy Lockhart, (negro.)

Western Ward—Jefferson Fisher, Jno. R. Harrison, Jas. H. Harris, (negro.)

We shall not stop, now, to canvass the character of these appointments, for graver issues are at stake. The spurious Board convened at the Executive office and recommended Col. W. H. Harrison, for Mayor.

The present legal Board, questioning Holden's authority, under the law, to displace them, at once, and very properly, consulted eminent Counsel as to their duty under the circumstances. Acting under the following opinion, they refused, as they should have done, to submit voluntarily to this gross infringement of their rights, locked the doors of the Mayor's office, removed the official papers of the town, and now calmly await further proceedings:

"It having been submitted to us, as Counsel for the city of Raleigh, whether W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, who has assumed the right to appoint and commission a Mayor and Commissioners for the city of Raleigh, has any right, under the existing laws, to make such appointments and issue such commissions; and also to advise the present Mayor and Commissioners, now exercising said offices, as to their rights and duties in the premises:

We unhesitatingly give it as our opinion, that Governor Holden has no such rights as he assumed in this behalf; that his appointments and commissions, issued and made to those claiming to be Mayor and Commissioners of the city of Raleigh, are invalid, null and void; and that it is the duty of the present incumbents of said offices, now exercising their functions, as well as their right, to continue in their offices and in the performance of their official duties.

B. F. MOORE.
A. S. MERRIMON,
ED. GRAHAM HAYWOOD,
July 14, 1868. Attornies at Law."

The following is a copy of Mayor Haywood's excellent reply to the extraordinary demand for the surrender of his lawful authority:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CITY OF RALEIGH, N. C.,
July 14th, 1868.

W. H. Harrison, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.:

SIR:—I have submitted to the Board of Commissioners of this City, your demand upon me to surrender this office, and the records, papers, property, &c., belonging thereto, to yourself and other gentlemen, named by you, who claim to be the appointees, as Mayor and Commissioners of this City, of his Excellency, Gov. Holden.

Upon due consideration, and, under the advice of counsel, it is the opinion of the Board of Commissioners that the appointments, purporting to be made by Gov. Holden, are without the sanction of law, and we are advised that it is both our right and duty to continue in the exercise of our offices, and respectfully to decline to surrender the office, and to comply with the demand by you made upon me. I address you this letter, by order of the Board of Commissioners.

I am, &c.,
Your Obedient Servant,
WM. D. HAYWOOD,
Mayor of the City of Raleigh.

We learn that the whole matter will come up this morning before Judge Reddick, of the Supreme Court, on an application for a Peace Warrant against the intruding Board.

EXCITEMENT AND AFFRAY.—We are pained to state that the community was in a condition of great excitement, on yesterday, growing out of "Gov." Holden's extraordinary and arbitrary action in the matter of Municipal affairs. Several serious affrays, solely traceable to the same pernicious and inexcusable cause, occurred, but, in the present temper of the public mind, we refrain from referring to them specifically, or saying anything that might, by any possibility, further exasperate it.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Cut Herrings, in large or small lots: Alex. Mitchell, Newbern, N. C.

Apple and Peach Peelers: J. B. Hunter & Co., General Commission Merchants, Portsmouth, Va.

Grain and Dried Fruit Bags will be furnished, free of charge, to parties wishing to ship to Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co., Portsmouth, Va.

We invite attention to the attractive catalogue of goods offered by W. H. Jones & Co., at New York cost.

Self-sealing Fruit Jars: J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis.)

Notice of Dissolution of Copartnership: Powell, Wilson & Co., Catawba Station, N. C.

U. S. SENATORS.

The agony is over. It will be seen, by the report of proceedings, in the two Houses, on yesterday, that Mr. Jno. Pool was elected U. S. Senator for the long term, ending March 4, 1873, and Gen. Abbott, of New Hampshire, for the short term, ending March 4, 1871. We have heard wonderful rumors of a bolt and a schism, for several days past, if the West was ignored in this matter of the Senators, or if a "Yankee carpet bagger" should be elected to represent North Carolina; but, as we expected, they were all "leather and prunella." The party lash was cracked, and the threatened "bolters" all went under. The East has both Senators,—a Yankee is elected,—Abbott and Pool are happy—and poor General Dockery! "His suffering are intolerable."

THE DAILY STANDARD.—This paper has now become a Daily. "W. W. Holden & Son" have ceased to float from its masthead, and, in their stead, we observe the names of "N. Paige & Co.," who profess to be the proprietors and managers. We learn, and it seems to be well founded, that the Standard is now owned and controlled by the owners of the New York Tribune, i. e. the bond-holders and leading Radicals of the North. It is not, however, to have the ability of Greeley, in its editorial columns.

In view of its antecedents, as well as its present ownership, it has no claims whatever upon North Carolina, much less upon the patronage of North Carolina Conservatives and Democrats. Holden's rule is: Not one crumb of bread can Conservatives get from the Radical State government or from Radicals. We hope that Conservatives will give bread even to Radicals, when starving or in want, but, at other times, let them look at home, and let us seek each other's good. If necessary, let us form Benevolent Associations, to provide for each other, and to shield our suffering and needy people from the bitter and vindictive policy of the Radicals. And we hope that our Conservative people will say "good-bye" to the Standard, and the Tribune and Bennett's Herald,—a trio as dangerous as war, pestilence and famine.

LEGISLATURE.—We direct special attention to the Legislative proceedings, of yesterday. Our want of space precludes notice of them. They speak for themselves, for the present, and we shall speak of them, hereafter.

STATE NEWS.

The Courier says the wheat crop in Warren is getting out very badly. The yield is nothing like as good as the straw promised.

The North Carolina Masonic Mutual Insurance Co. is in a prosperous condition, and will promptly pay its first loss,—that of the late Bro. Edmund B. Freeman.

The North Carolinian, with Mr. Wm. A. Hearne, as Editor and Proprietor, is to resume publication at Wilson, at an early day. Mr. H. wishes a good foreman and six compositors, and those of the craft, in need of employment, would do well to apply to him either personally or by letter.

John Spelman, Esq., of Newbern, proposes to issue, about the first of August, a weekly or semi-weekly Democratic campaign paper. Mr. S., is admirably qualified for such a work, and will give us an able and spirited paper.

Thirty-two hundred water-melons from North Carolina, intended for the Northern market, were received in Norfolk on Monday.

AN INSANE PROCEEDING.

We are pleased to observe that the press, in various parts of the country, North and South, are denouncing, as a great infamy, the recent desecration of the State's Charities by Executive and party malice. The Baltimore Sun stigmatizes it as "an insane proceeding." So it is,—and of that species known as moral insanity. The remarks of the Sun are so true and just, that we copy them entire:

"A Raleigh (N. C.) dispatch of the 8th says it was understood there that Governor Holden and his new board of supervisors of the State Lunatic Asylum, one of whom is a colored preacher from Canada, have removed Dr. E. C. Fisher, the able superintendent of the asylum, who has been in that position since its establishment, and appointed Dr. Grissom, a physician from Granville. It is almost impossible to conceive that political proscription can extend to offices of an asylum for the insane, and we do not believe that even the radical leaders of reconstruction in Washington ever contemplated that such outrages upon common humanity should grow out of the peculiar structures of government which they have established at the South. This subject occupied the attention of a Convention of superintendents and officers of insane asylums in the United States, which was lately held in Boston, and it was the unanimous expression of opinion, by the Northern and Southern gentlemen present, that it was against the interests of society to make changes in the offices of insane asylums, on account of political ideas and sympathies entertained by the incumbents throughout the war. On this occasion the venerable Dr. Stribling, Superintendent of the Virginia Asylum for the Insane, at Staunton, who has introduced so many beneficent reforms in the treatment of the insane, that he is entitled to be considered a public benefactor, made a speech, the liberal and humane sentiments of which elicited a universal response. All medical men know that the treatment of the insane is a specialty which demands not only long special study and training, but a peculiar combination of gentleness and strength of will, of moderation of character, evenness of temper, and great system and energy of action. Within the lifetime of the present generation there has been a great and beneficent change in the mode of treating the insane, who were once chained and lashed, and consigned to filth, rags and solitude.—Under the present system, insanity is as readily cured as any other disease. Dr. Fisher, the Superintendent of the Raleigh Asylum, who has been removed by Governor Holden, was educated under the auspices of Dr. Stribling, of Staunton, and by his decided capacity, long experience and benevolent character, has won universal confidence and respect. He is no politician, and never was, but a gentleman distinguished by his moderation in all things.—We refer to this subject in no partisan view, but would earnestly say that if partisan proscription is to be extended to such institutions as these, the public will be compelled to establish private insane asylums; for the friends of this unfortunate class will never consent that they shall be deprived of the most enlightened and compassionate treatment that is available."

SCIENCE IN A TOY.—A very amusing application of the frictional electricity has been recently patented in the shape of a small, shallow box, having for its bottom a plate of looking-glass. Another sheet of common glass forms the cover and there is a space of perhaps an inch and a half between the two glasses. A variety of figures cut out of paper or other light substance are laid upon the looking glass, and on gently rubbing the surface of the upper glass with a handkerchief or piece of paper, the several figures become electrified, assume the erect position, and dance about at a great rate, much to the amusement of lookers-on. When not in use the box may be hung up to serve as a mirror. The makers furnish a great variety of these toys, and the prices run from fifty cents upward.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000. No. POLICIES 52,700.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,708,51. DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and SWORN statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the Ætna are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4.90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,655,309; in 1866, $3,322,976, and in 1867, $5,129,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $677,910.-39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,287.64, making a grand total of $797,507 03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose ratio of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the Ætna is that Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

Official Statement showing the Expenses and Losses by the Twenty Largest Insurance Companies in America.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION:

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys draws from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star-chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the base and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution, and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamp to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
